Blast from the Past Summer History Camp

Port Allen, LA- The West Baton Rouge Museum is inviting children ages 6-12 to a week of old fashioned fun. This year's camp theme is "EVERY VOTE COUNTS: ELECTION YEAR 2008" and will be held June 23 -27, 2008.

Imagine a PATRIOTIC picnic in a 19th century setting where you will make crafts, play old fashioned lawn games, and taste home-made ice cream hand-cranked by you. Meet historic characters and CAMPAIGN for your favorite one. VOTE for your favorite parlor games and chores. Make crazy quilts, campaign buttons, pin wheels and other crafts. Enjoy ALL-AMERICAN treats like apple pie and Cracker Jacks! Play classic games of Capture the Flag, Town Ball, Checkers, and Tug-of-War. At the end of the week celebrate with a parade, a paper fireworks display, and an inaugural ball!

Camp will be held from 8:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. daily. Drop off is as early as 8:00 a.m. and pick up is as late as 3:30 p. m. Campers are to bring their lunches daily. Snacks and drinks during the day will be provided by the museum.

Advanced, paid registration in the form of cash or check made out to West Baton Rouge Museum is required. Fees are $65 for West Baton Rouge Residents or members of the West Baton Rouge Historical Association, or $75 for all other participants. For registration forms visit our website www.westbatonrougemuseum.com or stop by the West Baton Rouge Museum or call to have one mailed or emailed to you. Sorry no refunds.

The West Baton Rouge Museum is located at 845 N. Jefferson Avenue in Port Allen, just minutes from downtown Baton Rouge. For more information call 225-336-2422.
